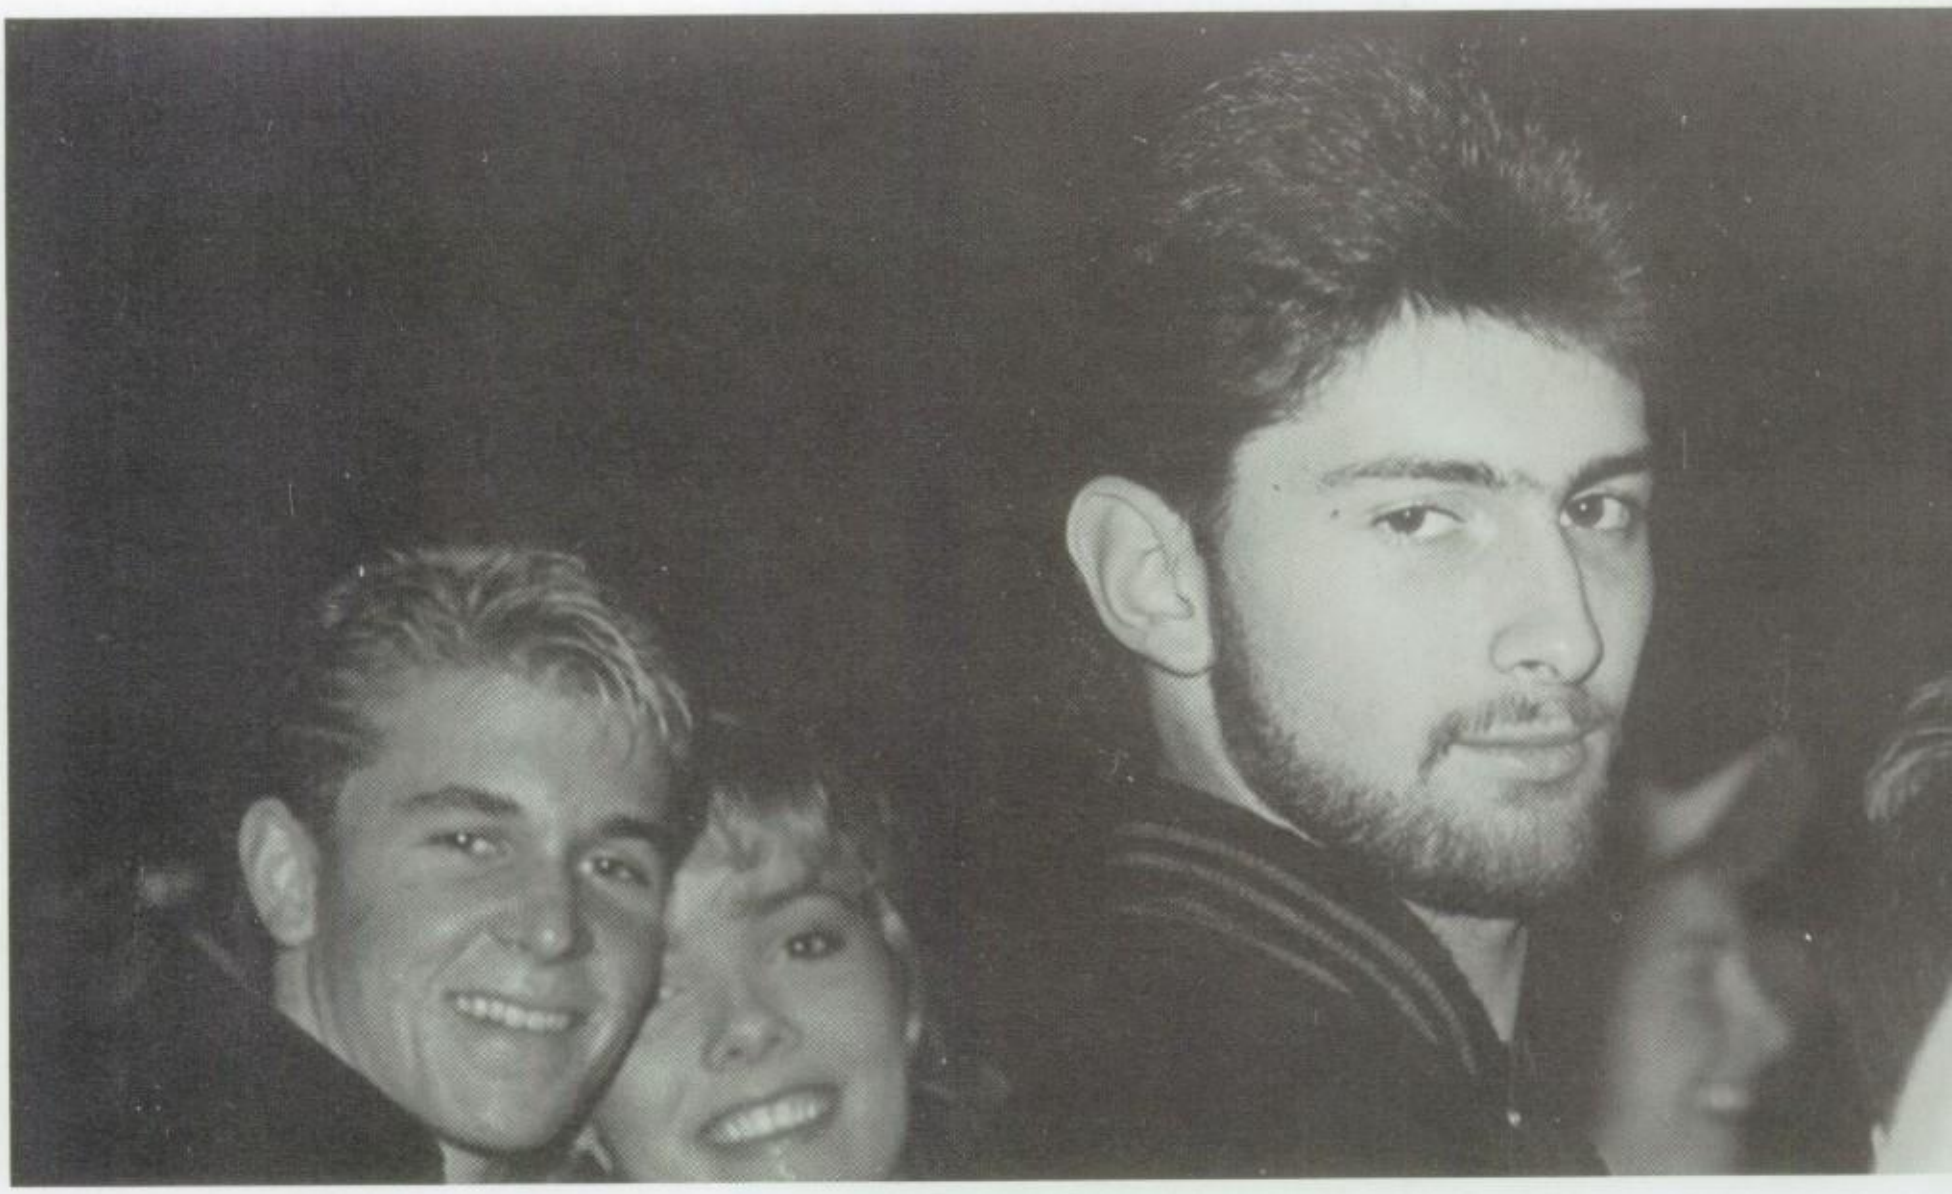
Charles Retherford is DEFINITELY a modest dresser, as you can see.

You've got to be kidding. MOUNTAIN DEW?

ello. My name is Larry. This is my brother Darrel and my other brother arrel.

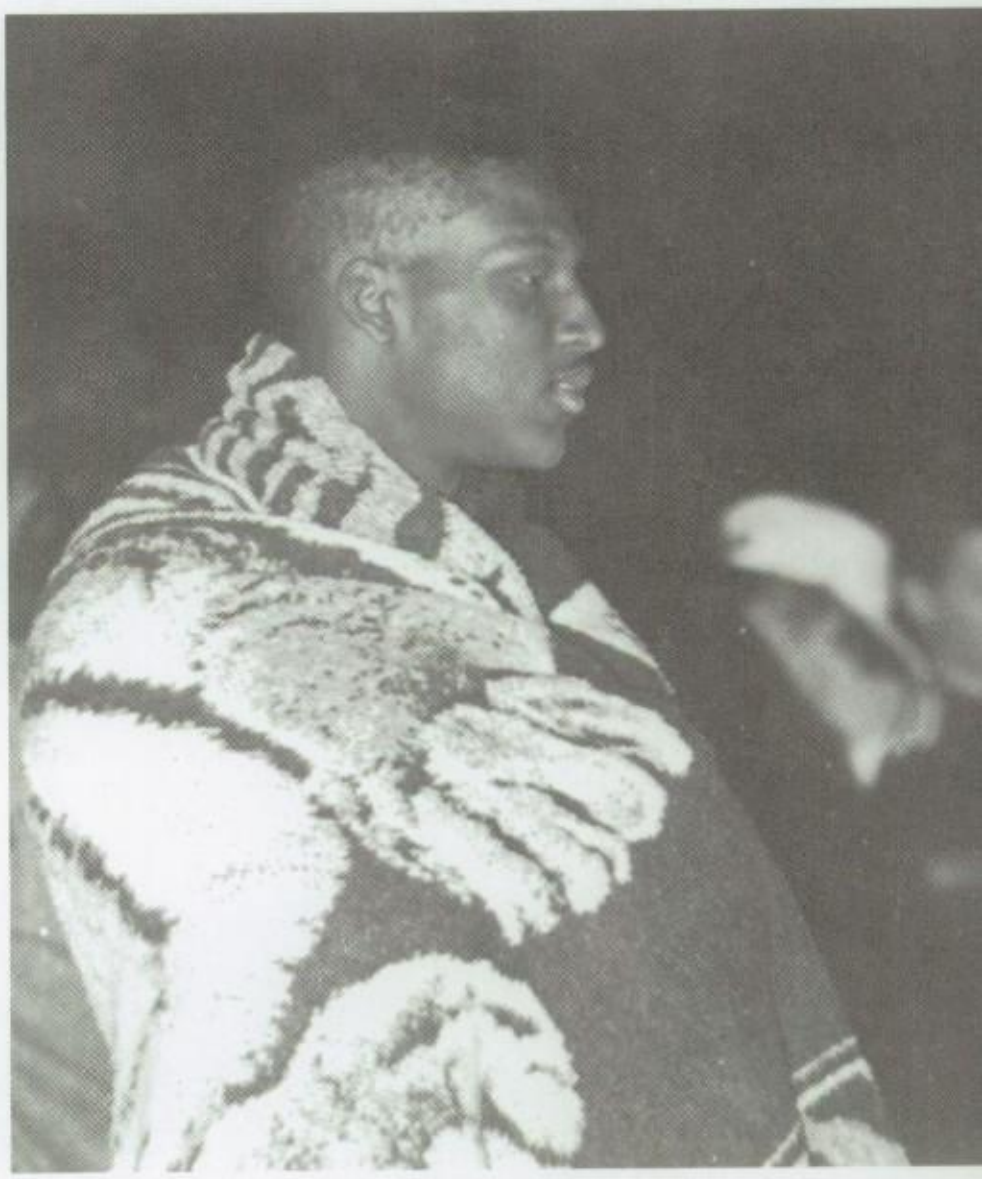
Harlan Bryan is not your everyday band student.



Oh, come on guys. Trust me.

Pam Reeves was a late senior.

SENIORS NOT PICTURED: Randall Booth, Kevin Cearley, Doug Dorle, John Goodwin, Tracy Hagler, Leon Hamilton, Bill Isca, Charles Mulanix, Tracey Pearce, Robert Smith, Michael Turner, Michelle Turner, Paul Weaver.



I got out of bed for this!?

I'm the one your mother warned you about.

Am I cute, or what?

You've obviously mistaken me for someone who gives a whoopty doo.

I'd be unstoppable if I could just get started.

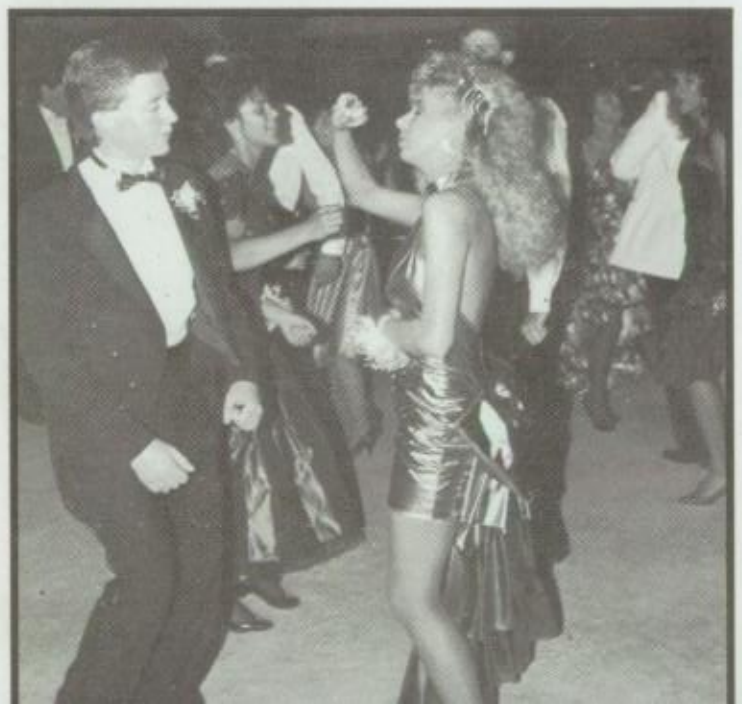
Oriental Enchantment

▲ "We're supposed to dance?"

▼ "Is that Harlan in a tux?"

▼ The senior guys get together one last time.

▼ "So this is it, huh?"



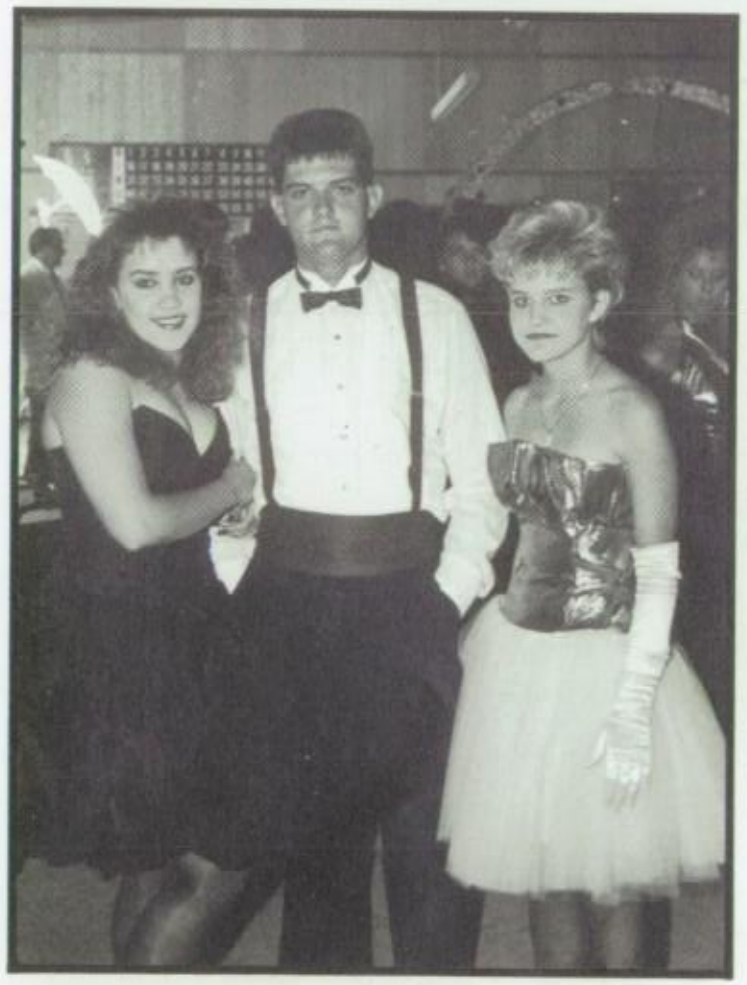
▲ These two try a new style: sleep dancing.

▲ "I personally am having a blast!"

▲ Mark and Shelly came to dance.

▲ It was a night to remember for Chris and Michelle.

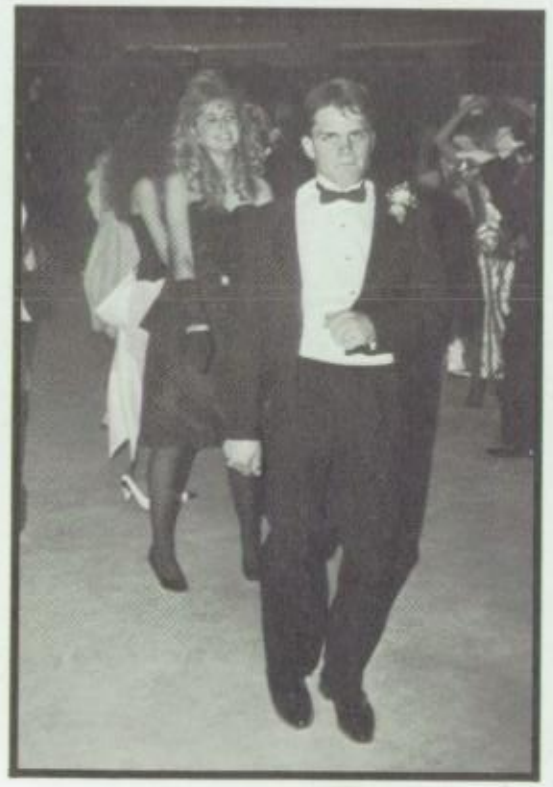
▲ Corey and Laurie in the spotlight.



▲ Girls! Girls! Girls!

▲ "Just 30 more minutes."

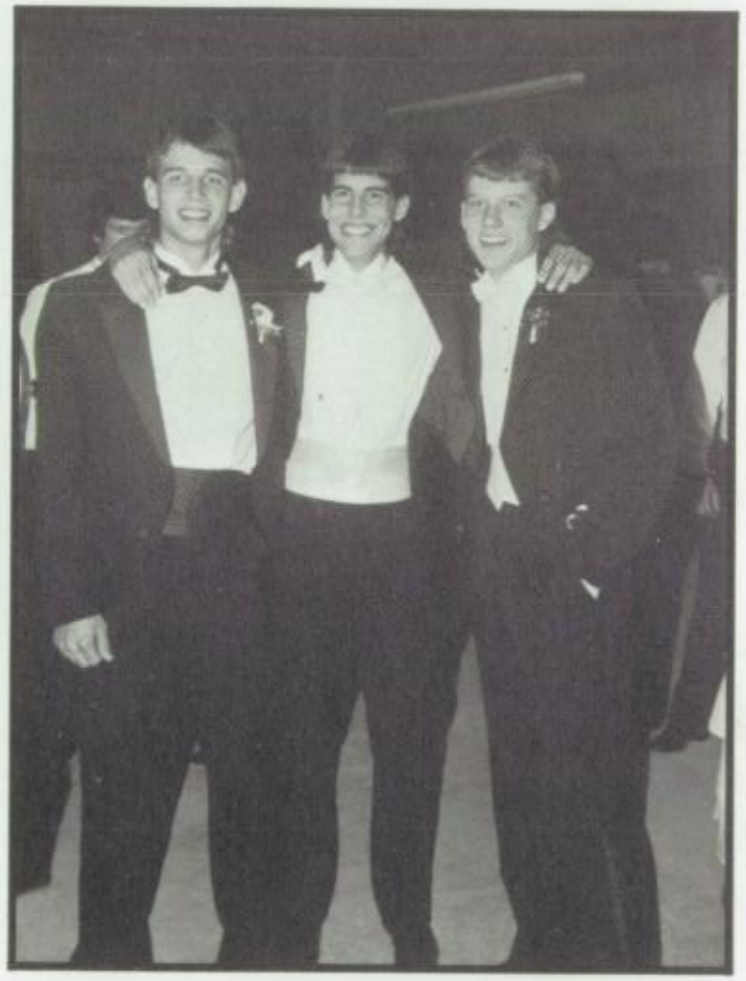
◄ Is Lance having fun, or what?

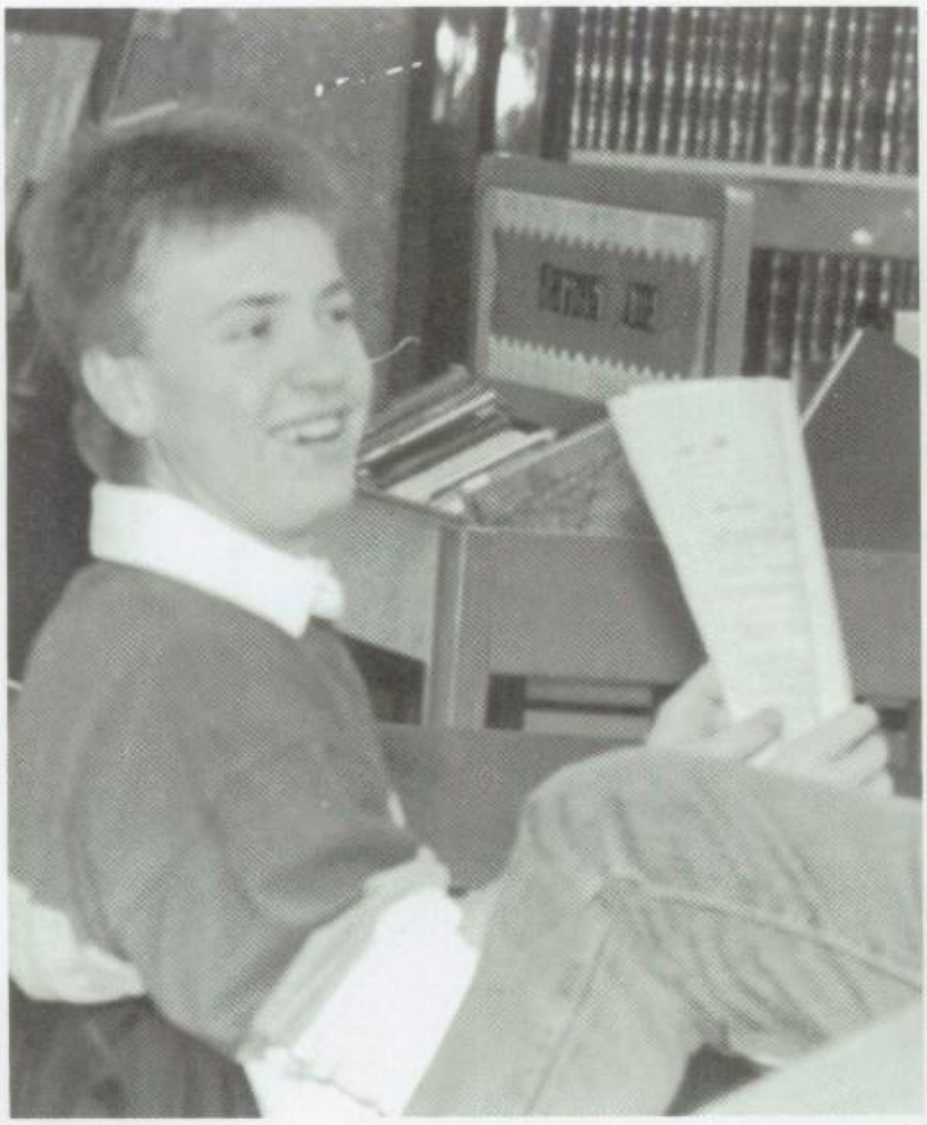


"No, I'm not dancing." ▲

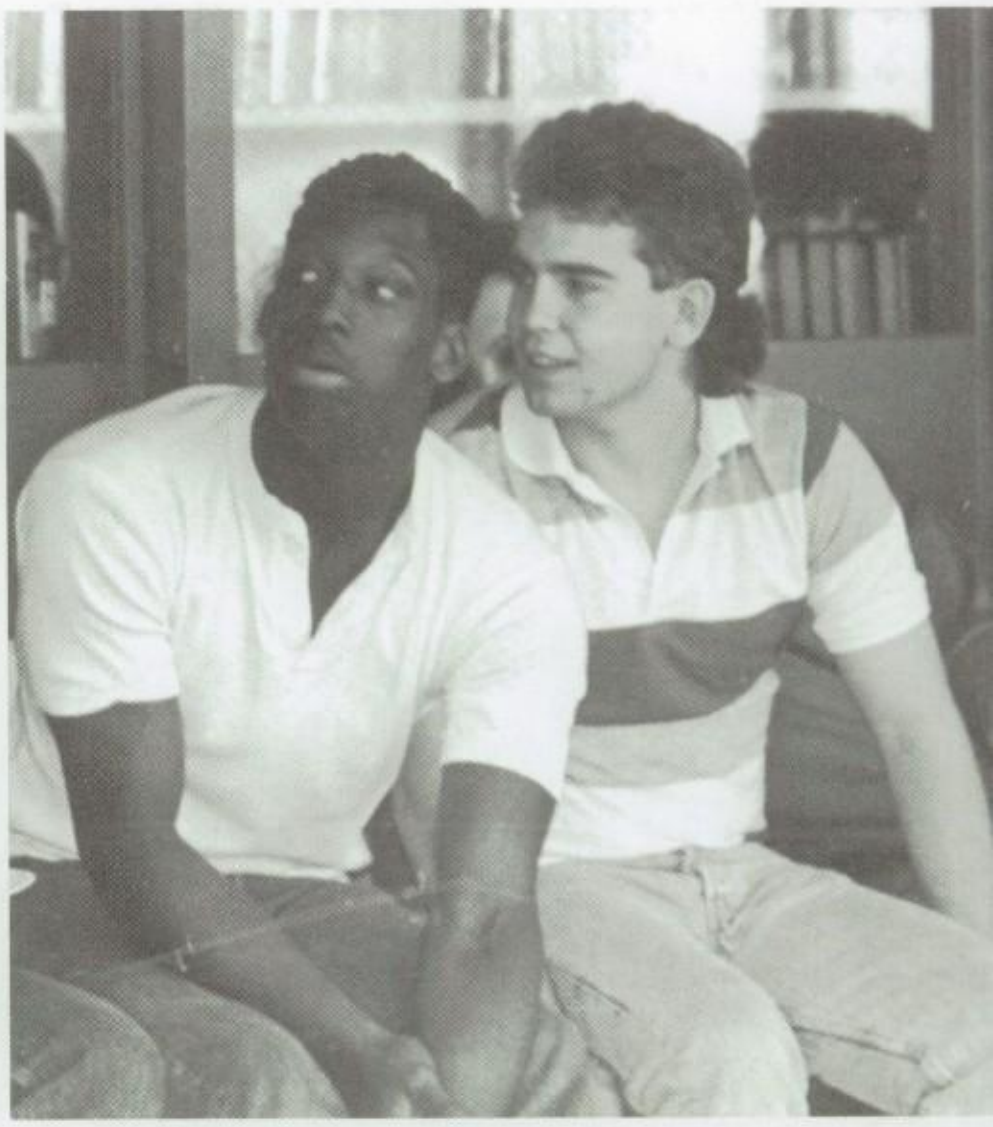
"Bring on the women." ►

▲ Ray and Angie take a break.

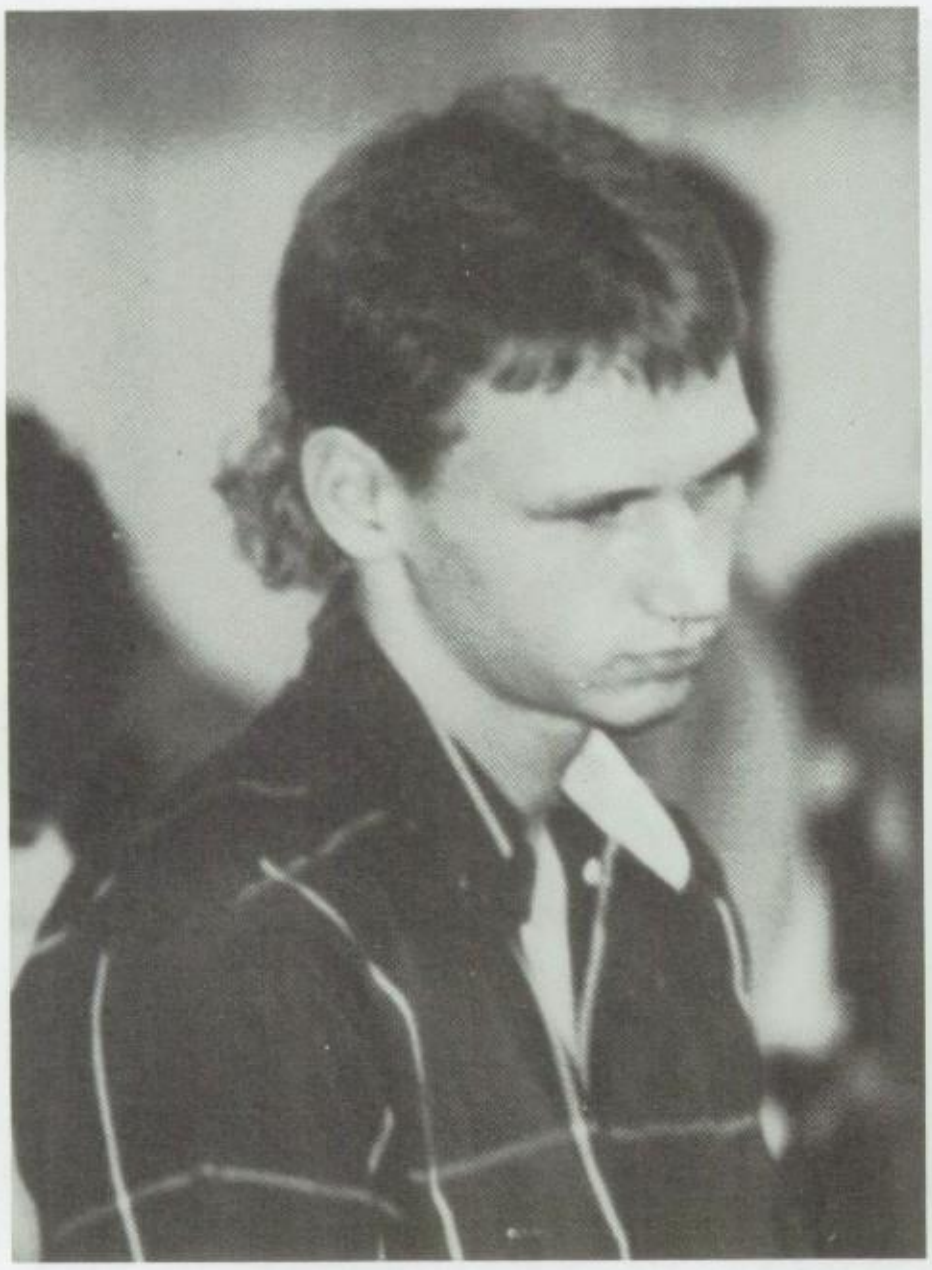




You guys are pulling my leg!



Who, me!?



Hey! Is anyone listening to me?

Surely it isn't that bad!

IN MEMORIAM — DEBRA POWELL (1951-1987)

The art of awareness is the art of learning how to awaken to the eternal miracle of life with its limitless possibilities.

It is searching for beauty everywhere,
in a flower, a machine,
a sonnet, and a symphony.

It is identifying yourself with the hopes, dreams, fears, and longings of others.
It is learning to interpret their thoughts, feelings, and moods.

It is developing the deep sensitivity through which we may suffer and know tragedy;
but through which we also experience
the grandeur of life.

Debra Powell left her mark on countless students and co-workers during her seven years as librarian. We shall miss her presence, but her influence will endure.

JUST FRIENDS . . .

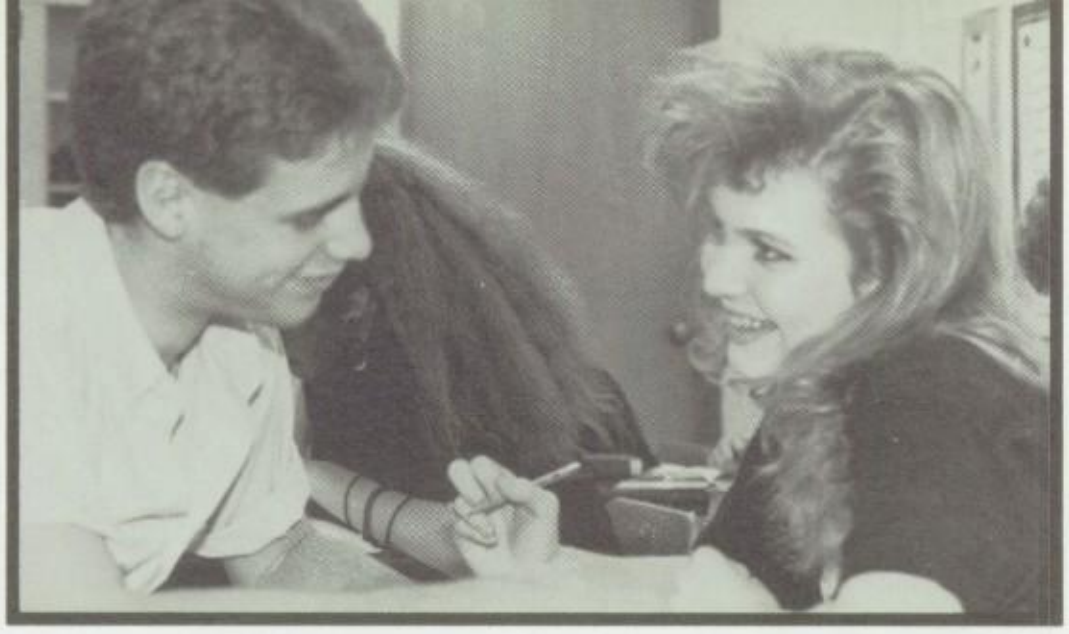
Jelousy too often occurs in romantic relationships because other boy/girl "just friends" relationships are mistaken or misinterpreted by unknowing friends, acquaintances, or even worse, by the person one of the friends is dating. Most of these friends decide they can overcome thoughts and statements of others, finding them not nearly so important as losing a confidant.

Some like Jason Cubbage and Charity Todd, are separated from their "special friends" by the miles, yet this doesn't keep them apart.

The friendship of ASHLEA BOLING and AARON BRADY fills the need of a big brother, a little sister.
Ashlea: "Aaron is like a big brother to me. If I'm ever in a situation where I need help, he always has time for me. He is a very special friend, and I don't know what I'll do without him next year."
Aaron: "Ashlea is very special to me. She is always there when I need her, and I try to be there for her, too. It's like having a little sis; I love it!"

Friends since grade school, BETH HARRIS and STEVE PULS appreciate being able to talk out a situation with each other.
Beth: "When I talk to Steve, I know I can trust him not to spread it around and he can give me a guy's point of view."
Steve: "I've known Beth since grade school and we've always been pretty close. She's easy to talk to and fun to be around."

ASHLEY YOUNG and MIKE MILLER have found being friends is fun.
Ashley: "Mike is someone I know I can talk to, and we have a lot of fun when we're togethe makes me laugh and that's important to me."
Mike: "Ashley is one of my closest friends because she is a really nice and sweet girl who is when I have any problems or just need to talk. I hope we can be close friends forever."



For the past five years DEEANN ETHRIDGE and JOE COOK have been supporting each other.

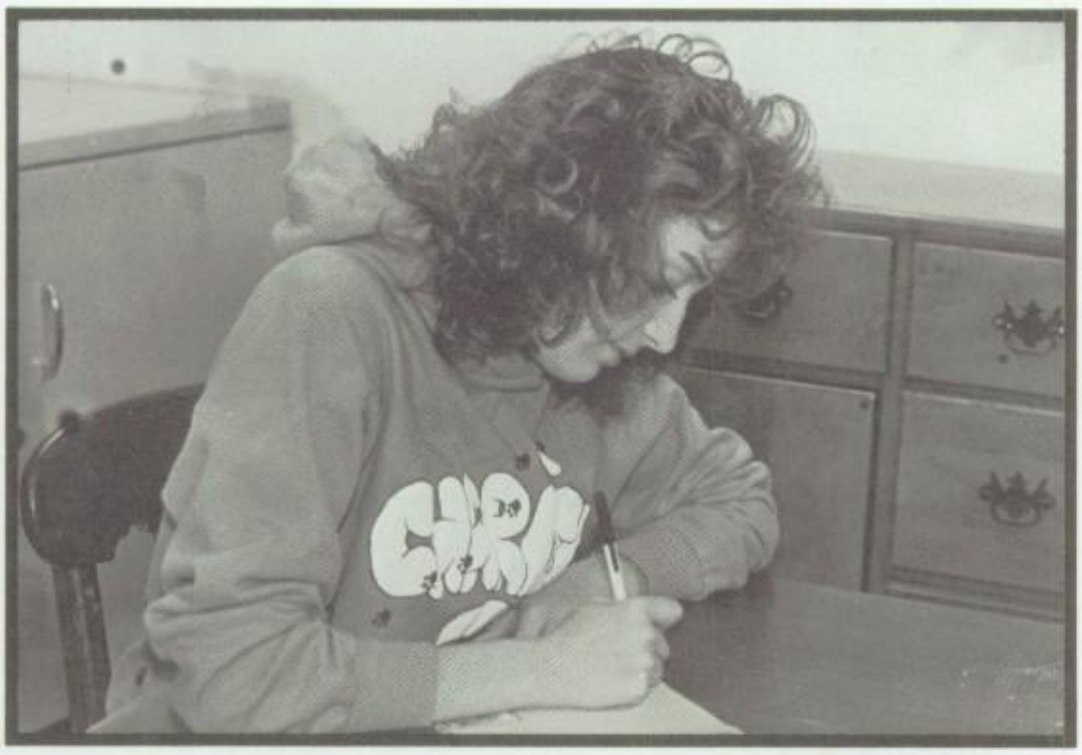
DeeAnn: "Joe and I have been best friends since sixth grade. He's always there to listen when I need shoulder to cry on. We have a great time when we're together."

Joe: "DeeAnn is always there to lend a hand when I need one. She has time to listen to my problems and can always come up with a good answer."

JULIE SITTON and PHIL RADEL share the understanding and trust necessary in a lasting relationship.

Julie: "Phil and I have always been good friends. One of the many reasons is that we can trust each other."

Phil: "Julie is a special person to me because she and I understand each other. We can help each other with our problems by giving one another advice. I can be myself around Julie; I'm glad we are friends."



CHARITY TODD writes STEPHEN as often as she can and always likes receiving his letters too.

Charity: Stephen is someone I can always count on to be there if I need him. Even though he is far away, all I have to do is pick up the phone and I know he is there to listen. This kind of friendship will last forever.

JASON CUBBAGE enjoys frequent phone conversations with SARAH.

Jason: "Sarah and I have been friends for what seem like always. We've had a lot of good and bad times together and we always know the other one is there."

the REDS revealed

They used to offer us as human sacrifices, burn us at the stake, bury us alive, throw rocks at us, and shut us out of society. As time went on they realized how mild-mannered we really are. In fact, they began saying we brought good fortune along the way. Superstition also says we bring good luck at gambling tables. Japan's mythical creature has red hair. And in England people believe that if you walk between two redhead girls, you'll soon be rich.

The meaning of the color red is still unsettled. It has been associated with power, the devil, magic, fire, blood, heat, and passion. Even though many fear red, it has always fascinated people, and they can't help marveling at it. Many famous people have been "reds." Some of these strong-willed individuals included George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Christopher Columbus, Napoleon, Winston Churchill, Mark Twain, Emily Dickinson, Henry VIII, and Elizabeth I.

All reds have a lot in common. We will all agree to standing out in the crowd and living a challenging life because of our red hair. We are easy to read. No matter how we feel, you can see right through us.

Though it is true that we tend to fly off the handle (once in a while), it's said that we get away with more because it's hard to stay mad at us.

Red has become the top shade of today, and everyone wants it. Red, red, red!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The CHS Student Council has kept quite busy this year holding activities for the student body and improving their organization. They attended the state convention, a district workshop, and a wellness conference. Working alongside the Red Cross, the student council held a very successful blood drive. For the entertainment of the student body, the council scheduled homecoming activities, dress-up days, and sponsored numerous dances. The student council also volunteered to help raise money for handicapped children in Cushing.

The Sound of Music

For six grueling weeks the cast and Ms. Caplinger spent many hours and long nights rehearsing "The Sound of Music." After selecting the characters, all worked diligently to memorize their lines and cues. Much time and effort was poured into each rehearsal, smoothing entrances and correcting flaws in order to achieve a spectacular performance. The impressive props and scenery were labored over by the stage crafts class, carpentry class, and many other willing students. The instrumental and vocal music departments joined efforts to provide the musical scores for the production. Finally, their hard work and efforts paid off as they gave a wonderful performance.

MARKING THE TIME

The 1987-88 Cushing Tiger Band participated in many events this year. Some of these included playing at all of the home football games, marching in many contests and parades, hosting district contest for our district, and participating in state contests. They also attended the Tri-State Music Festival in Enid, Oklahoma. This contest includes parade marching, field marching, concert and sight reading. For the first time in several years, the band took an out-of-state trip to the World's of Fun band contest in Kansas City. The band has been a great support to our 1987-88 school year!!

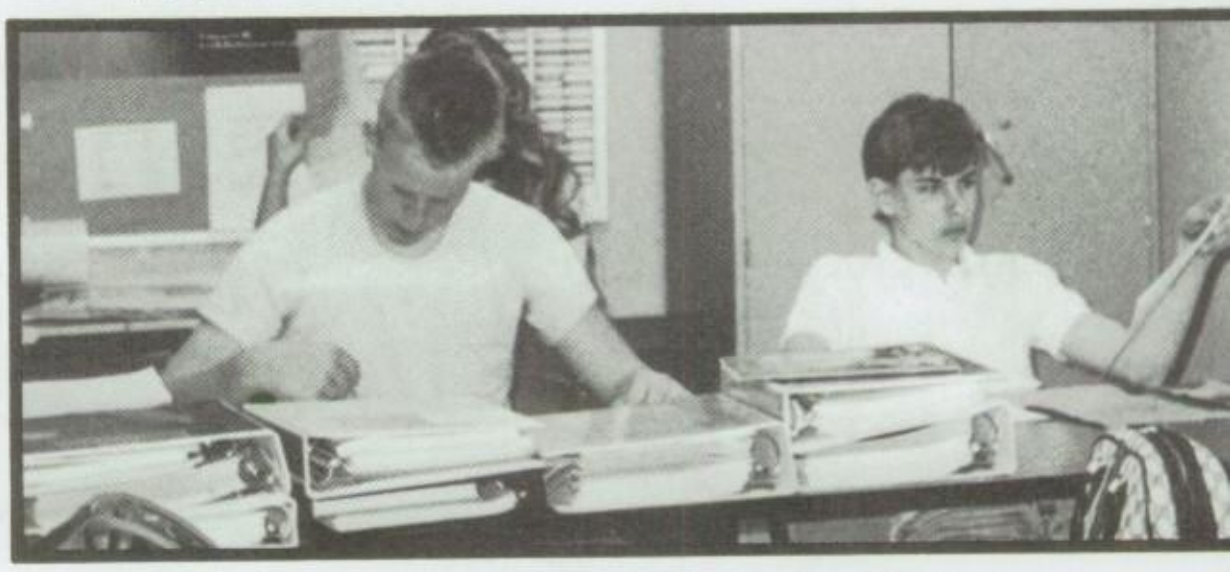
MARKING THE PAGES

Putting together this yearbook wasn't as easy as it looks. A lot of hard work went into it. The new members attended a three-day workshop at OSU in July. After this, the yearbook staff came up with a theme which they planned all of their pages around. Many hours of picture taking, film developing, layout drawing, proofreading, and worrying about deadlines that came up too soon has ended up as this: a book of memories you will keep forever.

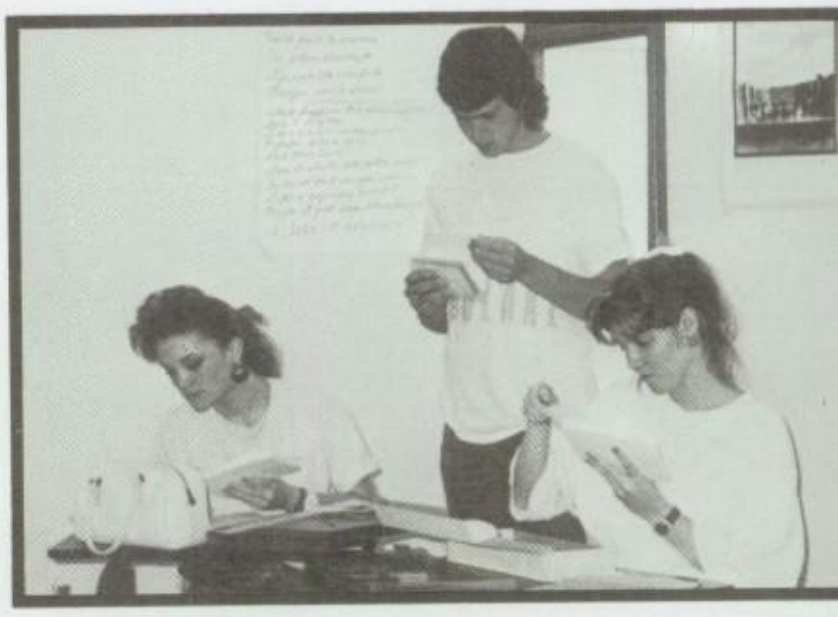
"No, Apryl, you can't print the pictures upside down." — Mrs. Swindell, Apryl Gosnell

"No, that's NOT me!" — Amy Middlebrook



Brian's always excited about yearbook. Alan Crockett, Brian Puckett

Second Row: Brian Puckett, Beth Harris, DeeAnn Ethridge, Amy Middlebrook, Apryl Gosnell, Michelle Dickinson, Geoff Detrich. Bottom Row: Alan Crockett, Kelly Holderread, Chris Cline.



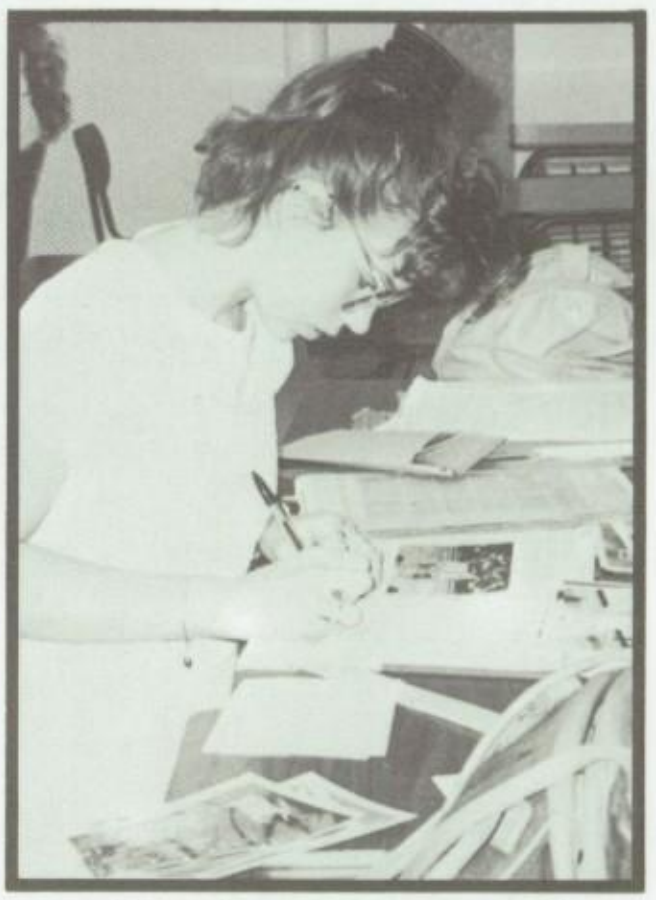
Looking at pictures is a favorite pastime of Beth Harris, A Brady, and Amy Middlebrook.

"What do you want?" — Michelle Dickinson

"Don't bother me; I'm busy." — DeeAnn Ethridge

What? Ashlea Boling really is working!

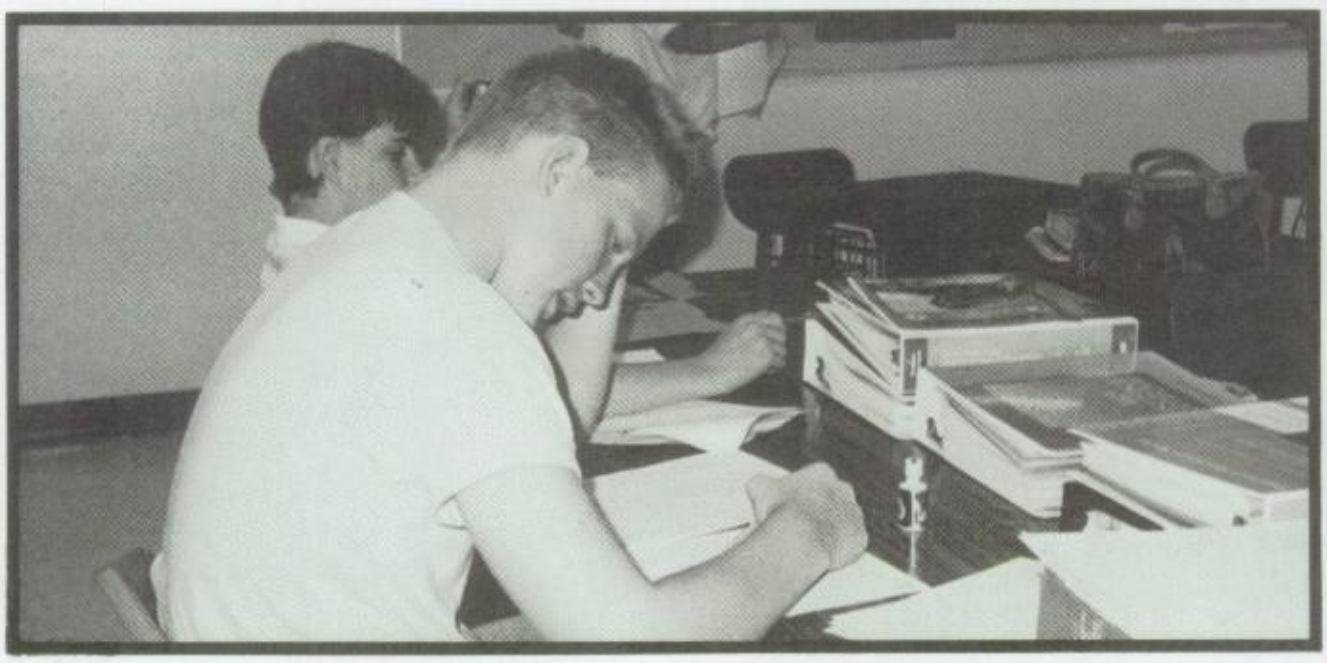
"Hey, Bud, point it in that direction." — Amy Middlebrook



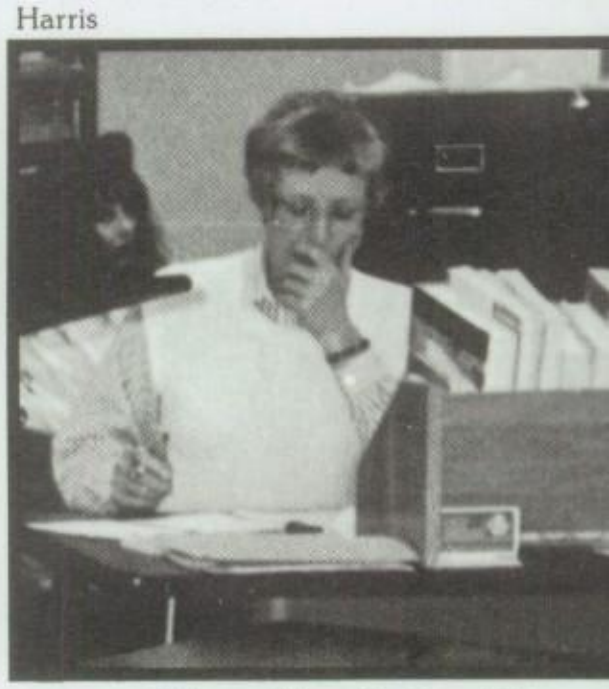
Apryl Gosnall writes a letter to Santa Claus.

Apryl Gosnell and Shandi Wood demonstrate the proper smile for class portraits.

"Do you think you can do better?" — Ba Harris



"How did I get picked to do this!?" — Alan Crockett



"Why me?" — Ms. Swindell

Rachel Kleckner now realizes how much work goes into the yearbook.

"Leave me alone!" — Shandi Wood

DAILY CITIZEN

The Cushing Daily Citizen believes in Cush
High School. We provide our readers in the Cim ron Valley with the latest happenings at CHS
we cover all events at the school.

Whether it be academic news, a school bo meeting or a Tiger football game, we're there we present the news daily.

We're Tiger Fans and we cover CHS sports an Orange and Black blanket.

Our best wishes to all students at Cushing H
School.

Colophon

Three hundred sixty-five copies of LEAVING OUR MARK, the 1988 annual publication of the student yearbook staff of Cushing High School, were printed by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas. The approximate cost of publishing Volume 71 was $12,000; single copies sold for $16.

The 192 pages of the book are printed on 80-pound matte finish paper with black ink. The cover, designed by STEVE CHILDERS, of Cushing, is lithocote 100-pound enamel paper coated with mylar lamination. Color used on the cover is 60% silver with 100% black lettering in 60 point Brush; names on the cover are stamped in 403 orange foil. Endsheets are black with die cut paw. Body copy is in 10 point Souvenir Standard; captions are 8 point. Headlines are 18, 24, 30, 36, 48, and 60 point Souvenir Standard and Brush. The binding is Smythe Sewn, rounded and backed; the cover is over 120 point binder's board.

Senior portraits were taken by MIKE'S PHOTO FACTORY of Cushing, and other student portraits were taken by ENTERPRISE SCHOOL PHOTOS of Tulsa.

The 1987 Cushing High School yearbook received a second place rating in national yearbook competition by the American Scholastic Press Association of Wheatley Heights, New York.
